

Coach Chris Gradwohl

Head Coach 12th Year at Richmond Junior Football
Vice President, Northwest Junior Football League

Coach Chris Gradwohl will be entering his twelfth year as a head coach in Richmond Junior Football where he has coached all age groups ranging from age 7 to 14. He has had 10 winning seasons, 3 undefeated seasons, 3 league championships and a 33 game winning streak. His defenses typically yield the fewest points, including a season in which no points were allowed. He takes more pride in his extremely high player retention rate. He also serves at the Vice President of the Northwest Junior Football League.

Coach Gradwohl lives in the Seattle area with his wife Julene, sons Jacob and Joshua and daughter Elizabeth. He works at Microsoft.
